"We love creative challenges like this, and are excited to write and record a custom tune for one of our fans," said Aurical's Michael Gallant. "We're grateful to Wildy for approaching us about this opportunity and for making it possible for us to help a very worthy cause through our music."

About Aurical

Aurical draws influences from grunge, modal jazz, and Motown; folk, soul, and French art song. Their debut album Something to Say (Gallant Music) received praise from audiences and critics alike. M: Music and Musicians magazine wrote, "Aurical finds the duo in pop-rock mode, and their cleverness comes through right away," while Wildy's World said, "Things get really interesting on 'Redhead Girl', with a piano style that sounds like a cross between Ben Folds and Tori Amos. The most original and intriguing work on the album, 'Redhead Girl' shows Aurical's ability to push the envelope and do it well." www.auricalmusic.com
